A vicious dog on a leash outside the dog's kennel shall be muzzled by a muzzling device sufficient to prevent the dog from biting persons or other animals.
- (k) Confinement indoors. No vicious dog may be kept on a porch, patio or in any part of a house or structure that would allow the dog to exit the building on its own volition.   - (1) All owners, keepers, or harborers of vicious dogs shall provide proof to the police chief of public liability insurance in a single incident amount of $50,000.00 per incident for bodily injury to or death of any person or for the damage to property owned by any person which may result from the ownership, keeping or maintenance of vicious dogs.
  - (2) The insurance policy shall provide that no cancellation of the policy will be made unless a ten-day written notice is first given to law enforcement.
  - (3) The owner or custodian of the dog shall produce evidence of the required insurance upon request of a law enforcement officer.

- (p) Declaration of dangerous/vicious dog; notification and hearing.
  - a. If law enforcement determines that a dog is vicious as defined in this section, he or she may declare the dog to be a vicious dog. The officer shall immediately inform the owner or custodian in writing, by personal service or certified mail, of such determination, and the reasons therefor. The determination shall be dated, and shall advise such person of the right to have such determination reviewed, the time within such review may be obtained, and the officer or person to whom a request shall be addressed.

- b. If an owner or custodian contests the designation of the dog as vicious, the owner may request a hearing in writing, mailed or delivered in person to law enforcement agency providing services to the Village within thirty days of issuance of the notice. The request for review shall state the ground or grounds upon which the person aggrieved contends that the decision should be modified or reversed.
  - c. The hearing shall be held within 15 days of receipt of the request for hearing before the common council. The DCSO Sergeant for the Village of Lomira or designee thereof, shall serve the appellant with notice of such hearing by mail or personal service at least ten days before such hearing. Any interested party may present evidence as to whether the dog is vicious. At such a hearing, the determination of the police officer shall be termed an initial determination.
  - d. The owner or custodian may file with the request for hearing written evidence and argument in support of the person's position with respect to the initial determination.
  - e. At the hearing, the appellant and the municipal authority may be represented by an attorney and may present evidence and call and examine witnesses and cross examine witnesses of the other party. Such witnesses shall be sworn by the Village Clerk. The Board may issue subpoenas. An appellant's attorney of record may issue a subpoena to compel the attendance of a witness or the production of evidence. A subpoena issued by an attorney must be in substantially the same form as provided in Wis. Stats. § 805.07(4), and must be served in the manner provided in Wis. Stats. § 805.07(5). The attorney shall, at the time of issuance, send a copy of the subpoena to the decision maker.
  - f. At the hearing, law enforcement and the owner or custodian of the allegedly vicious dog may present any relevant evidence related to whether the dog meets the definition of a vicious dog in this section.
  - g. The proceedings shall be taken by a stenographer or recorded. The Village Clerk or a person employed for that purpose shall take notes of the testimony and shall mark and preserve all exhibits.
  - h. Pending the decision of the Board upon the hearing, the owner must comply with any restrictions established by the Board. After the hearing, the owner shall be notified in writing of the determination. The Board may impose additional restrictions on a dog declared vicious pending arrangements for its removal from the city, euthanasia, or during any period pending judicial review.
  - i. Any party aggrieved by the determination may seek judicial review pursuant to Wis. Stats. § 68.13.
- (q) At trial on a charge or at a hearing:
- a. The fact-finder shall consider evidence of provocation of the animal by a person or animal bitten or injured by the dog as a potentially mitigating factor. If the provocation is purposeful or substantial, the fact-finder may accept any alleged bite or injury as self-defense by the animal and not classify the animal as vicious.
  - b. The attack, chase, or injury of a person or domestic animal by a dog shall, in the absence of contrary evidence, be presumed to be due to an unprovoked attack. However, a dog shall not be deemed to be vicious if it bites, attacks or menaces any person or animal:
    - i. To defend its owner, caretaker or another person from an unjustified attack by a person or animal;

- ii. To protect its young or another animal;
  - iii. To defend itself against any person or animal that has tormented, assaulted or abused it;
  - iv. To defend its owner's or caretaker's property against trespassers;
  - v. That is actively committing or attempting to commit a crime;

- c. No animal may be declared vicious for acts committed by the animal while being utilized by a law enforcement agency for law enforcement purposes while under the control and direction of a law enforcement officer.
  - d. Any vicious dog may be ordered impounded or removed from the village for violations of this chapter. The animal's owner shall be responsible for costs of impoundment or removal.
  - e. Any dog that has caused serious injury to a person or domestic animal on two separate occasions, without reasonable cause, may be destroyed as a result of judgment rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction, as specified under Wis. Stats. § 174.02(3). The animal's owner shall be responsible for costs of destruction.
